Christmas Bazaar – Saturday 30th November 2013

With little over 2 weeks until this year's Christmas Bazaar, we are working hard to make it as fun and successful as we can. Whilst we appreciate that not everyone has the time to help in the bazaar's preparation, there are lots of other ways we would appreciate your help, as set out below:-

Non-Uniform day – 22nd November

There will be a non-uniform day in exchange for a contribution to the luxury raffle hamper and tombola. Suggested themes are as follows:

- Class 1: Sweet treats including chocolates/truffles and biscuits
- Class 2: Christmas puddings, savoury crackers, jams, chutneys etc.
- Class 3: Luxury Toiletries, candles, gift items
- Class 4: Wine, spirits, liqueurs, speciality non-alcoholic drinks

Other contributions for the adult/kids tombola e.g. books, DVDs, games, jigsaws (new/in good condition), sweets etc will also be most welcome. There will be playground collections from Fri 22nd to Fri 29th Nov for donations.

Silent Auction

We are still looking for any interesting and possibly unique prizes or experiences for the silent auction; perhaps a music or language lesson, tickets for a sporting event, a flight to the moon etc... Some people have already offered their special skills for a period of time which we think will be well received. Sam Sutherland and Mary Bannister would love to hear from you.

Second hand book stall and pre-loved clothes and accessories

What a fantastic opportunity to clear out all those books you've read cluttering up your shelves! Please bring in any books that are in a good condition, and give them to Sam Scott.

We are also in need of good condition, pre-loved children's and ladies' clothes, bags, etc to sell. Before passing onto the charity shop please give anything you may have to Kate (Belle's mum) or Debbie (Nell's mum).

Raffle tickets

Please return all raffle ticket stubs and money, plus any unused raffle tickets to the school office.

We will be selling raffle tickets outside the village shop between 8am-12pm for the next 2 weekends. We still have a couple of hour-long slots which need to be filled so please let Heather Pearce know if you can do any of the following times:-

Sat 16th, 10-11am and Sun 17th, 11-12pm.

Performances

Just to give you prior notice, there will be performances by both Streetdance and recorders which are likely to be between 11.45am and 1pm. The timings will be confirmed next week.

Thank you,

Anna-Louise Lancaster
